CLASS POEM

CLASS OF FORTY-SIX

We are standing on the deck
Looking eastward to the shore,
And we see the future rising
Like a massive fearful door.

"What lies behind this door?"
Each mate in turn does ask.
"Who knows," the Captain answers;
"What be your chosen task.

"For many there'll be glory,
And many will see grief."
Each mate looks at the other —
Who'll end upon the reef?

The good ship now is resting at the pier.
The Captain turns, looks at each familiar face of the Class of '46,
And wishes "Bon Voyage" through every coming year.

Silently each mate does vow
That wher-e'er his path may go,
He'll never forget this great ship
The U. S. S. Ludlow.

Margaret Enos, '46

CLASS SONG OF '46

We've all been looking forward
For this day to come.
To wish each other happiness,
Health, Good Luck, and Joy.
Our school Day mem'ries linger on,
And friendship ties together bound.
Let's sing one last refrain:

CHORUS:

Farewell to Ludlow High School,
Dear Old Ludlow High,
And teachers we are fond of,
They have giv'n us light.
We hope to bring them honor,
And glory to our school.
Let's take with us those happy days
In Dear Old Ludlow High.

CLASSMATES IN SERVICE

HAROLD BELLANGER, Cpl.—Harold joined the army in the Enlisted Reserve Corps in February, 1945, but he was not called until July, 1945. After thirteen weeks of basic training, his next assignments were at Fort Jackson, South Carolina, and then Camp Shelby, Mississippi. There he was a clerk typist in the Receiving Division and after a furlough, he typed discharge certificates in the Separation Center. From there, he was made a correspondence clerk in the Reception Station Headquarters. Harold has also taken a correspondence course, so that he can receive his diploma. He plans to attend college after his discharge.

MANNUEL COEHOL, S 1/c—Mannuel was one of the first boys of our class to enter the service. He joined the navy on July 11, 1944, and he received the usual boot training at Sampson, New York. From there, he went to Newport, Rhode Island, and studied gunnery for ten weeks. In December, he traveled to Baltimore, Maryland, for the commissioning of his ship, the U.S.S. Queens. After leaving Pearl Harbor, they operated with the Fifth Pacific Fleet, and he was able to see much of the Pacific area, including Japan.

HOWARD TOURVILLE, S 1/c—Howard entered the navy on November 19, 1945. He received his boot training at Sampson, New York, and after the usual boot leave, he attended radio school at Sampson for thirteen weeks. He then reported to Newport, Rhode Island, to board the cruiser U.S.S. Makin. After a shake-down cruise around the West Indies and South America, he returned to Newport to train recruits. In March, he reported to Hampton Roads, Virginia, to participate in experimental work.

STEVE ZWIZINSKI, S 1/c—Our Junior class president joined the navy on February 9, 1945. After his training at Sampson, he attended radio school for thirteen weeks at Bainbridge, Maryland. From there, he was transferred to Cleveland, Ohio, and has been working in the Navy Bureau of Supplies and Accounts Department. This bureau supplies men with monthly pays, bonds, and mustering-out pays. Steve has taken a correspondence course and has attended night school, so that he can receive his diploma with the class in June.

JASPER HARRICA, Pvt.—Jasper joined the marine corps in February, 1945, and he received his boot training at Parris Island, South Carolina. From there, he was transferred to Camp Lajeune for advance training for overseas duty, and there he was made a squad leader. His next assignments brought him to Camp Pendleton, Oceanside, California, and Pearl Harbor. While he was in Honolulu, the war ended. He was shipped to the Fifth Field Depot at Guam, where he has been guarding war prisoners, doing repair work, and general duty. Jasper finds the natives friendly, and he stated he expected to be overseas another eighteen or twenty months.

LOUIS MORENO, F 1/c—Louis was also one of the first of our classmates to enter the service. He joined the navy in November, 1944, and after his boot training at Sampson, he went to Gulf Port, Mississippi. Louis attended basic engineering school there and then received further training at a repair base in San Diego. He boarded his ship, the U.S.S. Baltimore, a heavy cruiser, at Long Beach, California. He served six months in the Pacific—most of the time spent in Japan. After a leave, he went back to San Francisco to await his discharge.

ARMAND SANTOS — Armand entered the navy in May, 1945. He received his boot training at Sampson, New York, and after his boot leave, he joined the Pacific Fleet. The U.S.S. Bayfield took him to Leyte; then he went to Manila, Okinawa, China, where at Tsing Tao, he expects to be transferred again.

JOHN KING, S 1/c—John joined the navy in the summer of 1945 and received the usual boot training at Sampson. After his leave, he spent only a short time on the West Coast. He spent most of his time overseas in China and Japan. A short while ago, he returned to Pearl Harbor and at present, he is in the United States.

OUR SENIORS IN ALPHABET

- A is for Ada Pasquini, a shy and pretty lass;
B is for Bob Dobbie, the president of our class.
C is for Clara Nalepa, whose smile is so enhancing;

LOG OF THE U. S. S. '46

The U.S.S. '46 making passage from the port of Freshman to the port of Senior and stopping en route at the ports of Sophomore and Junior.

Time: September, 1942 to June, 1943.

Weather: Stormy.

Sea: Rough.

The newly commissioned U.S.S. '46 set sail under the command of Barbara Wood. Other officers included Executive Officer, June Helberg, Officer of the Year, Claire LaFlamme, and Supply Officer Fred Murray. Our main event of this year was an after-noon party held in the ship's auditorium. This launched our social gatherings for the remainder of the cruise.

Time: September, 1943 to June, 1944.

Weather: Clearing.

Sea: Choppy.

The U.S.S. '46 began the second lap of its cruise. The command had been changed and we were captained by Fred Murray. Executive Officer was Donald O'Connor, Officer of the Year, Dolores Klimczynski, and Supply Officer, David Irvine. This year we had the honor of being the first ship to hold an evening dance. It was a great success and proved to be only the first of many events we would hold before the cruise was ended.

Time: September, 1944 to June, 1945.

Weather: Fair.

Sea: Rolling.

The crew of the U.S.S. '46 pulled up anchor and left port under the command of Steve Zwizinski. He was ably assisted by Executive Officer, Bernard Golden, Officer of the Year, Dolores Klimczynski, and Supply Officer, Louis Silveri. This year we lost many of our crew to the Armed Forces. Among them, our captain, Steve, was transferred to another ship of the Navy, and Bernard Golden took command. We continued our cruise and gave as our main social event, the Prom. It drew praise from everyone, and we were complimented extensively.

Time: September, 1945 to June, 1946.

Weather: Perfectly clear.

Sea: Calm.

The last lap of our cruise began with Robert Dobbie as our Captain, Louis Silveri, Executive Officer, Barbara Wood, Officer of the Year, and Joseph Alfonso, Supply Officer. We had not sailed far out when we received a communique that our Admiral, M. Jacob Joslow, was leaving. We all grieved at this loss, but knew that Vice-Admiral J. J. Millane would be a competent substitute. Again on this trip, we held a few social events. Soon, we knew our cruise would be ended, and as the time drew closer, we became less and less anxious. Finally came Ivy Day, Ship's Night, Ship's Banquet, and then Graduation. Our initial cruise was over, and we experienced seamen were ready for what the world had to offer.

KING NEPTUNE'S COURT

Position: Equator.

Hour: Hi-time.

King Neptune, John Swienton, who has just been piped aboard by Bos'n Marian Hartland, reigns supreme as the U. S. S. '46 makes ready to pass over the Equator. Captain Robert Dobbie issues the order that King Neptune's Court is now in session. Immediately the officers, Dobbie, Louis Silveri, Joe Afonso, and Barbara Wood, go through the boiler. Ship's Doctor Philip Crockett hurries to the scene and with the aid of Pharmacist's Mate Claire LaFlamme prescribes an instant ducking. Seamen Irene Dryjowicz, Julia Twarog, and Claire Nalepa, who received their training at the Ailing Ambulatory Asylum, administer this remedy.

In the meantime, C. P. O.'s Barbara Miner and Irene Waskiewicz, both Conover Models, are having their heads shaved by experienced Ship's Barbers Eugene Raymond and Irene Kogut, graduates of the Hack 'Em Up Free Barber Academy.

This act is interrupted by the entrance of Ship's Cook Joe Kuc, proprietor of Kuckie's Cook'em Chop-House, the man who has the reputation of preparing the best beans in the Navy. He and his assistants Mess Attendants Helen Trusz, Ida Martins, and Adele Niemiec, all former employees of Kuc, scurry around the deck announcing that "chow" is ready.

Gunner Dave Irvine, whose appetite, poor soul, is equivalent to that of a bird, is being gently prodded along by fellow "gobs".

The Crew is quite startled when Storekeepers Eisold let out blood-curdling screams. These two, former President and Vice-President of the Oh, I Hate You Man Club, have discovered seaweed in their Flaky biscuits. Immediately, Mess Attendant Donald Butler, former executive and stockholder in the L. M. A. Candy Wagon, steps forth and takes a bow—He planned it.

Petty Officers Jennie Cygan, Matilda Fioravanti, Ida Szczepanski, Dorothy Santos, Madeline Paine, Lorrette Couture, Mary Grybosh, and Teresa Fernandes, members of the world-famous Bell Bottom Trousers Octet, patrol the decks inspecting certificates of membership in Neptune's Court from previous crossings.

Signalman Ada Pasquini, formerly associated with the Walt Disney Studios, is found with a forged certificate. Quickly, Corpsmen Neil Wright and Beatrice Mendes, at one time known as The Daredevils of the Racetrack, combine their efforts and thrust her into a barrel of oil. Instantly, Angelo Teixeira, the greatest lover the world has known since Rudolph Valentino, comes to her rescue.

Suddenly, a great commotion is heard as Seaman Mary Palatino, winner of the 1945 Weaker Sex Wrestling Match, bodily drags Firemen Jim Newman and June Helberg along the deck. She is closely followed by Second Class Seamen Avery Crandall and Ian Scott who are being shoved from behind by Ship's Engineer Christine Stebbins, champion typist. These culprits, professionally known as the Four White Spots, are found guilty of Insubordination by King Neptune. They have been seen together constantly, and thus, their duties were being neglected. Both couples are put in solitary confinement for one whole day and their guard is made up of Lorraine Gauthier, Helen Makowicz, Elsie Gaviglio, and Mary Libiszewski, who hold Kappa Kappa Kappa Degrees from the Watch Your Man Institute.

Deck Hands Hilda Alves, Gloria Flebotte, Julieta Lopes, Carolyn Watson, Ameila Pereira, and Sophie Obrzut, who won great acclaim as the Huba Huba Girls at the Diamond Cow Palace, are seen with their noses in a G. I. Can. What has happened??? It seems the Old Salt aboard is minus his teeth. Willard Gowey, who is on a leave of absence from the Herkmer Jecker

mer Law School, was supervising the ducking for apples and leaned too far over the can and lost his teeth. (False???)

One Moment Please! The writers of the Prophecy (????) see fit to condemn Gloria Renaud, Shirley Miles, Dolores Klimczynski, Lottie Witowski, and Theresa Kochanek to walk the plank. Reason? Pestering the Authors of This Masterpiece!!!!

Yeomen Statia Surowiec, Ruth Butlerfield, Marie Markert, Ida Szczebak, and Jane Rozkuszka, retired officials of the Frank's Friendly Frankfurt, French Fry, and Fritter Delicatessen, are complaining bitterly about the numerous Navy Beans they have had to consume. Quietly, Ship's Baker Ida Nunes and Cox'n Aurora Nunes, third cousins twice removed, administer a guaranteed-to-end your troubles treatment. Each one is forced to drink one quart of dishwater. No more griping is heard from anyone.

All is in readiness for the formal presentation of the certificates signifying that each man aboard has passed over the equator. Chief Bos'n Donald Sadowski, alias Our Little Ray of Sunshine, sounds General Quarters. In the mad scramble that ensues, Machinist Mate Ralph Wilson's bubble gum bursts with a loud pop. He was formerly employed as a Bubble Blower for the Double Bubble Trouble Gum Company of Stick'em Wells, Utopia.

On the top deck lounge Old Timers Mary Barna, Eleanor Gaudreau, Stella Bzyzicki, Charlotte Randall, and Walter Janeczek, all graduates of the Ludlow University for Counterfeiters.

The roll is called — but where is Mess Attendant Harold Williamson? Warrant Officer Eleanor Dostal, the Van Johnson of the Fair Sex, is selected to find the missing sailor. Upon stepping into the galley, she is confronted by a shower of beans and biscuits. Heroically, Williamson, a renowned florist, tries to counteract the steady flow of the bombarding bean cans which has been caused by a sudden lurching of the ship.

Quartermaster Gerald Robbins, the last surviving Mayor of Ludlow, and the one who took over the wheel from Shirley Bacon designer at the Richard Miller Horror Film Company, is blamed for this catastrophe. Robbins, the Fob Gob of the Navy, saw a mermaid who reminded him of the Navy's No. 1 Pin-Up Girl, Edith Thomas. This "Beauty of the Seas" was attempting to lure the ship off its course.

During the entire ceremony, Seaman First Class Mary Casagrande had remained on watch in the crow's nest. However, when the ship took that frightful lunge, she plunged downward with a piercing howl. Quickly, the efficient rescue squad, Specialists Adele Benoit, Undina Monteiro, Jean Dusza, Edmund Mikula, Julia Carrolo and Margaret Enos, formerly connected with the You Start'em We Finish'em Fire Dept. dashes with the net to the dreadful scene.

Chief Commissary Steward Henrietta Ochrymowicz, associated with the Peace and Quiet Funeral Home is heard yelling Land O'Lakes Sweet Cream Butter over here!!!! This starts an instant panic as the crew, including the rescue squad, race toward her. Upon investigation, I. B. F. Man Roy Goodreau discovers that the C. C. S. has been attempting to obtain business for her own establishment.

Suddenly, Radioman Helen Kudlic interrupts the ceremony with a message from the Navigator, Jacquelyn Wilkie. It seems that Quartermasters Bernard Golden, John Rebeiro, and Ross Supernaw fouled up the charts and instead of being anchored on the Equator the U. S. S. '46 is N. E. of the Equator! The ship will not reach the Equator until the next day, and today's procedure will have to be repeated tomorrow!! Oh well, such is life aboard the fast-moving, wrong-doing U. S. S. '46.

THE END!!!

CLASS WILL

Avast ye lubbers!! We the crew of the mighty '46 under the influence of one Coke and two Minerize do hereby bequeath the following:

To the faculty—We leave our pa-tience and for-titude.

To the Juniors—We leave our pathetic case of senioritus and our doubtful graduation list.

To the Sophomores—We leave our endless supply of chatter and our "between class" manners.

To the Freshmen—We leave our headaches of the past three years and our eager (?) thirst for knowledge.

Therefore, we the Crew of the '46 set sail for foreign ports leaving behind this our last will and testament.

Individually, we made these bequests:

JOSEPH AFONSO—Leaves his keen observation of traffic rules to MITCHELL DUDA and his romantic drawl to PETER LISAK.

HILDA ALVES—Leaves her large eyes to ESTELLE KLIMCZYNSKI and her warm friendliness to "CHICKY" NICHOLS.

SHIRLEY BACON—Leaves her lady-like manner to JOAN CORMACK and her feather-clip to CLARICE SUPRENANT.

MARY BARNA—Leaves her frequent visits to Indian Orchard to CLAIRE TURCOTTE and her last minute jitters before giving orals to BETTY ROSSI.

ADELE BENOIT—Leaves the rhythmic beat of her bass drum to LEO MARIANI and a few feet of her height to ANNETTE BELANGER.

STELLA BZYICKI—Leaves her many hairdos to BLANCHE ROBERTS and her low voice to JEAN NEWMAN.

JULIA CARROLO—Leaves her ability to jitterbug to IRENE KANIA and her endless optimism to JOSEPHINE MARINI.

MARY CASAGRANDA—Leaves her ever-wagging tongue to GEORGIANA MARTIN and her dancing feet to EDWARD GOLDEN.

LORETTE COUTURE—Leaves her locker key to ALBERT AFONSO and her frequent absences from school to MANUEL BATISTA.

AVERY CRANDALL—Leaves her long blond braids to TONY SOUSA and the ideal management of her farm to her brother BASIL.

PHILIP CROCKETT—Leaves his bashfulness to DOLORES ALEXANDER and his executive position as assistant janitor to CONNIE THOMPSON.

JENNIE CYGAN—Leaves her timidity to PALMIRA DELMASTRO and her frequent blushes to EUGENE MISIASZEK.

ROBERT DOBBIE—Leaves his interpretation of the "Lauren Bacall Look" to JOE TEIXEIRA and his executive ability to JOHN SOARES.

ELEANOR DOSTAL—Leaves her various hair-dos to IRENE FIOROVANTI and her incessant talking during Problems of Democracy to anyone looking for trouble.

IRENE DRYJOWICZ—Leaves her rapid speech to EVELYN NOGA and her jewelry to GLADYS WARREN.

JEAN DUSZA—Leaves her long walk to school to BLANCHE DOBBIE and her inquisitiveness to JOYCE BENNET.

GERTRUDE EISOLD—Leaves her guitar to JANET SMITH and her high scores in basketball to BETTY SADOWSKI.

GLADYS EISOLD—Leaves her flirtatious manner to ALBERT PEREIRA and her slow walk to JOSEPH LISAK.

MARGARET ENOS—Leaves her driver's license to JUSTIANO SILVA and her peaches-and-cream complexion to TONY ACKERMAN.

TERESA FERNANDES—Leaves her shocking red coat to IDA GARCIA and her locker to JOHN PRYBYTT.

MATILDA FIOROVANTI—Leaves her black hair to RUTH MCLEAN and her peppy cheering to CLEMENT GOODREAU.

GLORIA FLEBOTTE—Leaves her bickering during Senior Science to MARGARET FERRIER and her solemn disposition to THERESA AREL.

ELEANOR GAUDREAU—Leaves her pleasing manner to EMILY SANTINI and her neat appearance to BERNICE RANDALL.

LORRAINE GAUTHIER—Leaves her black dresses to BARBARA SMART and her small feet to BETTY ANN SMITH.

ELSIE GAVIGLIO—Leaves her ability to tickle the ivories to JOAN BENNETT and her high voice to RAYMOND BISSONNETTE.

BERNARD GOLDEN—Leaves his giggling sprees to PETER MORIN and his membership in the eight o'clock club to his brother EDWARD.

WILLARD GOEWY—Leaves his tall tales about the navy to STEPHAN KOCHANER and the ability to make himself heard as well as seen to GENEVIEVE KULIG.

ROY GOODREAU—Leaves his crew cut to ALZIDA HENRIQUES and his bow tie to FRANK SINATRA.

MARY GRYBOSH—Leaves her overdue Bookkeeping assignments to Mrs. Cormier and her hair bows to ISABELLE GARDNER.

MARION HARTLAND—Leaves her fiery spirit to MILDRED WILLIAMSON and her domineering airs to NORMA FALCONER.

JUNE HELBERG—Leaves her winsome smile to IRENE KOCHANER and her fondness for basketball to MARIO CASAGRADA.

DAVID IRVINE—Leaves his childish manner to WALTER KARETA and his numerous ailments to WANDA LAZARZ.

WALTER JANECZEK—Leaves his shyness to ROBERT FALCONER and his country ways to JEAN BUTLER.

DOLORES KLIMCZYNSKI—Leaves her many extra-curricular activities to MARGERY WILSON and her varied moods to STANLEY BODUCH.

HISTORY OF THE JUNIOR CLASS

As Freshmen, the class of '47 chose the following officers: President, Justiniano Silva; Vice-President, Phyllis LaFlamme; Secretary, Marjorie Wilson; Treasurer, Gladys Warren. The big event was the Freshman Party, one of the Class' most memorable occasions.

In their sophomore year, they elected these officers: President, Walter Wdowiak; Vice-President, Miquel Pereira; Secretary, Barbara Smart; Treasurer, Edward Magiera. Again, their dances were very successful.

Now that they are Juniors, they have decided to make a slight change: they have elected a girl as their president: Irene Swiatlowski. The other officers are: Vice-President, Miquel Pereira; Secretary, Marjorie Wilson; Treasurer, Betty Lou Simmons. On November sixteenth, the Juniors held a Lollipop Dance, which everyone enjoyed. By the time this yearbook goes to press, the Junior Class will be centering all their attentions upon the annual Promenade.

HISTORY OF THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

In their Freshman year the class of '48 chose the following officers: President, John Soares; Vice-President, Mitchell Duda; Secretary, Ruth McLean; Treasurer, Irene Fioravanti. They had several successful dances; thus, when the year was completed, the class had quite a tidy sum in their treasury!

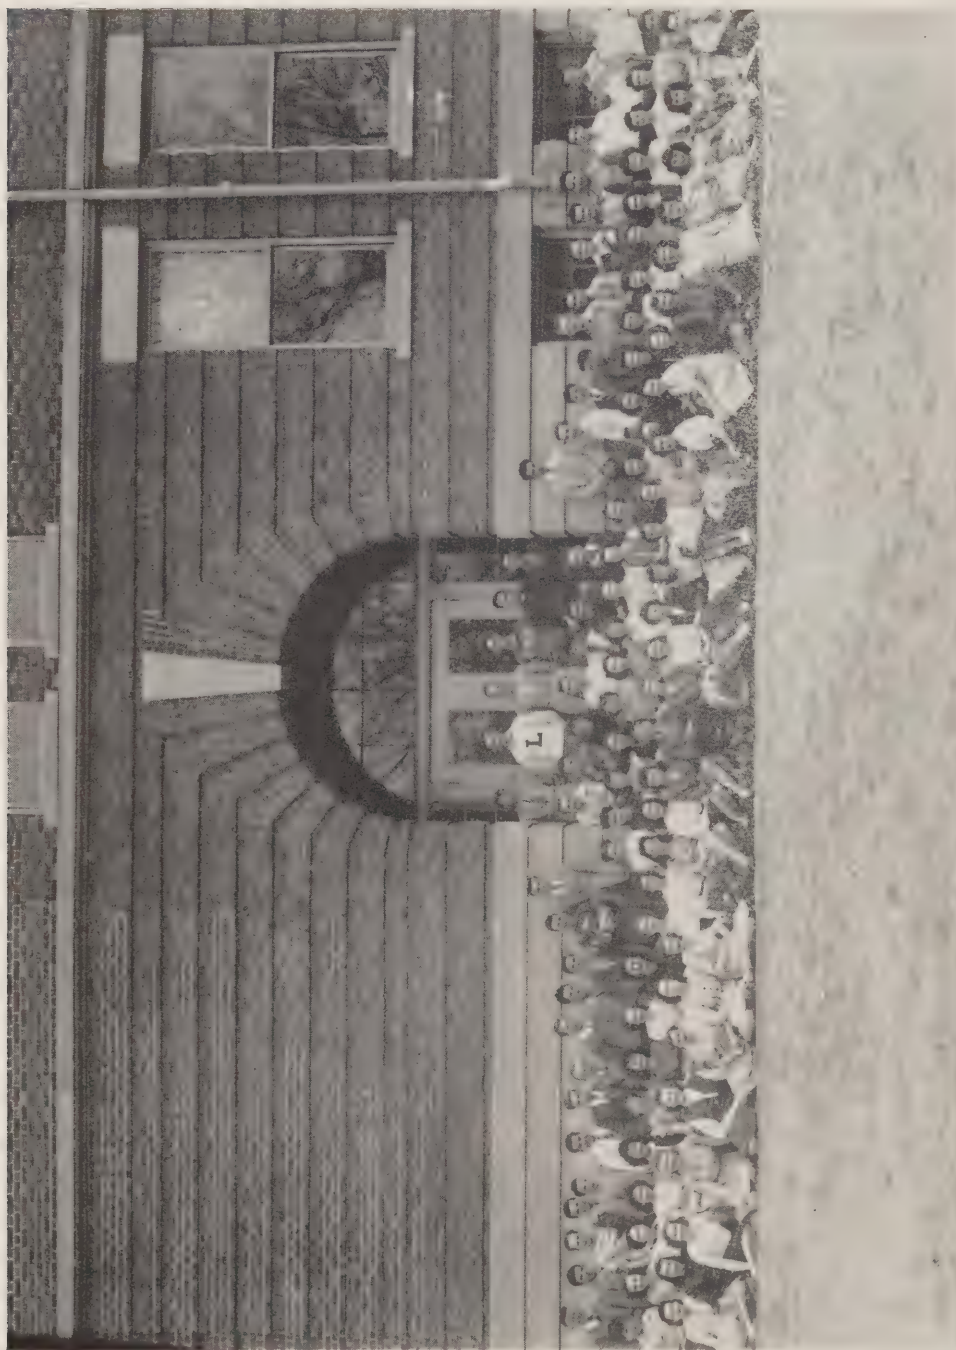

This year they re-elected John Soares and Ruth McLean president and secretary respectively. For new officers they chose Clarise Suprenant, treasurer and Joan Cormack, vice-president.

The sophomores have been allowed to hold an evening dance, which proved to be very successful. The class also held a Valentine's Day Party.

HISTORY OF THE FRESHMAN CLASS

In eighth grade, this class elected these officers: President, Louis Casagrande; Vice-President, Richard Gauthier; Secretary, Odette Souse; Treasurer, Stanley Witowski.

As Freshmen, they have chosen these leaders: President, Charles Saloio; Vice-President, Richard Gauthier; Secretary, Irene Kochanek; Treasurer, Cynthia Easson. This year, the class has held two parties, both highly successful.

SEXTET

The Sextet, which is also under the direction of Miss Urban, has fulfilled another heavy schedule this year. The girls have worked hard and as a result, many out-of-town invitations have been extended to them.

During the Christmas season, the girls gave a program for the aged people in the Springfield City Home and one at Westover Field. The group has sung a number of times in Chapel No. 2. Their last engagement was a program for the Ludlow Women's Club. At present the Sextet is working on an evening's program of Strauss and Stephen Foster.

The members are as follows:

Jacquelyn Wilkie	'46	Betty Ann Hennessey	'47
Dolores Alexander	'47	Beatrice Howes	'47
Marion Birrell	'47	Betty Lou Simmons	'47
